Request for New Object Photographs

A new digital image of a MOA object may be requested. However, MOA reserves the right to reject proposals that do not fall within its mandate, jeopardize the safety of the collections, or for which MOA does not have adequate staff resources or equipment. To request new object photographs contact: or call 604-827-4409 3 weeks prior to your deadline.

Conditions Governing Use

MOA restricts the use of its images for commercial purposes. Permission is granted for one-time use only and reproduction is limited to the uses approved in this application. Images of objects, people or settings may not be cropped or altered in any way without permission. MOA reserves the right to reject proposals that do not fall within its mandate; subject the collections or the cultures from which they come to misrepresentation or disrespect; or involve objects deemed to be sacred. The MOA does not hold copyright to all materials in its possession. In cases where MOA does not hold full copyright, it is the responsibility of the applicant to obtain permission and to pay any fees to the copyright holder. In photographs with identifiable people, it is the responsibility of the applicant to obtain written permission to reproduce the image from those individuals. Depending on the nature of the request and the object(s) selected, MOA may also require the applicant to seek permission from the originating community. One copy of the product or publication in which the reproduction is included must be provided to MOA when feasible.

Credit

All images must be identified as specified by MOA, including the phrase “Courtesy of UBC Museum of Anthropology, Vancouver, Canada.” When known, the fonds, collection, photographer, and archival or object ID# must also be acknowledged.
